

College of Engineering Pulse Secure VPN

The College of Engineering offers a secure connection method to our network using the Pulse Secure VPN (Virtual Private Network) client. This service requires you to have an active OSU ID and password, as well as your BuckeyeSecure 2-Factor-Authentication set up, please make sure you have them configured prior to connecting.

macOS Client (Download from BuckeyeBox) macOS Installation Guide macOS 10.15 "Catalina" - VPN installation Warning Message Workaround	Windows 64-bit Client (Download from BuckeyeBox) In the unlikely event you are using a 32-bit version of Windows , use this download link: Windows 32-bit Client (Download from BuckeyeBox) Windows Installation Guide	Fedora Guide Ubuntu Guide <hr/> Ubuntu 16.04 Only Installer Ubuntu 16.04 Only Guide	Android Guide	iOS 12 Guide
-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-------------------------------	------------------------------

 To find information about other remote access services, such as Citrix and Microsoft Remote Desktop, please head to the Connection Guide Wiki page.